The 1850 Census of Summit Co., Franklin Township, Ohio:

Daniel Bliler	66 M	Born PA	Abt 1784	Farmer, $2,000
Elizabeth Bliler	50 F	Born PA	About 1800-1802
Elias Bliler	22 M	Born PA	Abt 1828	Teacher

Daniel's age looks like 16. However we know this is not correct. He seems to be the head of the family with an occupation of farmer and owning $2,000 in real estate. He was still living in 1850. There was a Daniel, Jr. but do not have his birthday. It is possible that he could be about 16, but wonder why he would be listed as the head of the family, and wonder where Daniel then would have been at that time. So the alternate reading on line 1 could have been

Only time may tell which is correct.

DANIEL BLILER'S WILL

Be it remembered that on the twenty fourth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, at a Court of Probate holden at the Court House in the town of Akron in the County of Summit and State of Ohio by and before NOAH M. HUMPHREY, Judge of said probate Court; the last will and testament of DANIEL BLILER, late of said county, deceased and produced in Court and offered for Probate; whereupon HOUSTIN SISLER, one of the subscribing witnesses to said will appeared in open Court and an oath testified to the due execution of said will, which testimony was reduced to writing and by him subscribed and filed in the office of the Judge of said Court of Probate with said will and it being represented to the Court that HENRY DICKERHOFF, the other subscribing witness to said will resided in the County of DeKalb in the State of Indiana; It was thereupon ordered that a commission issued to DAVID McDANNEL of said County of DeKalb, authorizing him to take the testimony of the said HENRY DICKERHOFF touching the due execution of said will made returnable with all convenient speed, whereupon afterwards to wit on the twenty seventh day of September, A.D. One thousand eight hundred and fifty eight and commission was issued to the said DAVID McDANNEL with the will of the said DANIEL BLILER thereto annexed under the _____ of the Court, afterwards to wit on the fifteenth day of October A.D. One Thousand eight hundred and fifty Eight, the said DAVID McDANNEL commission aforesaid returned into said Court of Probate, the commission of _____ as aforesaid to be the will of said DANIEL BLILER and the testimony of the said HENRY DICKERHOFF thereto attached which testimony and commission was filed in the office of the Judge of said Court with said will,

And it appearing to the Court from said testimony that said will of the said DANIEL BLILER, deceased, had been duly executed and attested and that the Testator at the time of the execution of the same was of sound mind and memory of full age and not under any restraint. It was ordered by the Court that said will be admitted to probate and that said will and testimony be recorded which will and testimony and commission follow in these records to wit.

In the name of the Benevolent Father of All, I DANIEL BLILER of Summit County, Ohio, do make and publish this my last will and testament.

1st I give and bequeath to my beloved wife in lieu of her dower the one third in value of all my personal property and the interest on the one third in value of all my real estate during her natural life, and all the household furniture, and all the stock provisions that may be on hand at the time of my death, she however disposing of enough to pay all my just debts, and all such articles as she does not need.

2nd It is my will that all my real estate shall be sold immediately after my death, at public sale, and that one third in value thereof shall stand in the farm, in the hands of the purchaser secured by mortgage, on the land, and the interest thereof to be paid annually to my wife, and at her death to be equally divided among all my children.

BENJAMIN, JOSHUA, DANIEL, EMATH, JOEL, ELIAS, LUKE, SARAH, MARY, ABIGALE, SOPHIA LUCINDA, JULIA, ANN, and ESTHER. (The name Emath might be Enos, Emaus, Emassa.....it appears to begin with an E and not an A. One source gives a name of Amandus as a child. Also comma misplaced in Julia as Julianne was one daughter.)

It is further my will that my son, ELIAS, and my daughters, ABIGALE, SARAH and MARY, and ESTHER, shall each have the sum of two hundred dollars; the others of my children having each received said amount, for which I hold their notes, and it is my will that said notes shall not be collected, nor any part thereof, but shall be an offset against the two hundred dollars made and provided by this will to ELIAS, MARY, SARAH, and ESTHER (poss. Abigale on next line down, but not readable)

3rd It is my will that no part of the _____ estate going to my daughter LUCINDA intermarried with HENRY EMRICH and my daughter, LUCINDA (though this is clearly written Lucinda it may mean Sophia as we know she married Jacob Rhodes. Since they are named separately with an "and" between their names in section 5 they must be two separate daughters.) intermarried with JACOB RHODES, shall go into their hands, but shall be safely invested by my administrator and receive from him the annual interest thereon during their natural lives and after their death shall be equally divided among their children.

4th It is my will that my administrators shall return from the amount going to my daughter SOPHIA intermarried with Jacob Rhodes, the sum of fifty two dollars with lawful interest from 1852 (?) until the distribution of my property and I also authorize him to pay the same _____ to my son, ELIAS, he holding a note against said Rhodes for said amount.

5th In case of the death of either of my daughters, LUCINDA or SOPHIA before their children shall arrive to lawful age, my administrator shall pay the interest on their portion to the guardian of their heirs.

6th It is my will that my administrator shall of the 1st money that shall come into his hands pay all my just debts and the two hundred dollars each to my son, ELIAS, and my daughters, SARAH, MARY, and ESTHER intermarried with SOLOMON SHILLING, and then as soon as the balance shall come into his hands, make an equal division or distribution among all my children according to the terms of the foregoing will.

7th I do hereby nominate and appoint my son, BENJAMIN BLYLER, executor of this my last will and testament hereby authorizing and empowering him to compromise adjust and release in such manner as he may see proper the debts and claims due me; I do also authorize and empower him to sell by public sale upon such terms of credit as he may see proper, all of my real estate, and deeds to purchaser, to execute, acknowledge, and deliver in fee simple and pay out,

CHAPTER XXXVI.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP—CURIOS LEGAL QUESTION—LOCATION, EARLY RESOURCES, ETC.—UNFORTUNATE VILLAGE PROJECTS—BUSINESS EMPORIUMS—THREE VILLAGES IN ONE—PIONEER SETTLERS AND INCIDENTS—ORGANIZATION OF TOWNSHIP—FRANKLIN'S INDUSTRIES—MILITARY SERVICES—THE SAUTER—SHEETES TRAGEDY—OSTER-KERNAN HOMICIDE—HONORABLE CIVIL RECORD, ETC.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP.

WE are now about to extend our researches and observations beyond the "sacred precincts" of the renowned Western Reserve, or "Cheesedom," as the rest of the State have been wont to call us, and to descend into "Dutchdom," as Stark, Wayne, and other Pennsylvania and German settled counties were formerly designated by the dwellers upon said Western Reserve.

Curious Legal Question.—Like Coventry, Franklin township is formed of two distinct parts, from two separate surveys; that the Indians to the United States in 1785, and surveyed by Ebenezer Buckingham in 1800, while the title to that portion west of the river remained in the Indians until 1805, the survey being made by Joseph Harwell in 1807.

And, in this connection, arises the somewhat complex legal question as to the ownership of the Tuscarawas and Cuyahoga rivers, the Indians having, by the two separate treaties named, ceded to the government the lands east and west of those rivers, but not the rivers themselves. Suppose the lineal descendants of the chief, or chiefs, who executed said treaties, should come forward and claim said streams, would the Ohio law of prescription, or adverse possession of over twenty-one years, hold good, and if so to whom, the United States government itself, the State of Ohio, or the individual owners of the abutting lands upon either side of the streams in question?

WHERE AND HOW LOCATED.—Franklin is designated on the records as Township 2, Range 10, and though somewhat broken in portions by hills, rivers, creeks, lakes and marshes, is one of the best farming townships in the county, besides being largely underlaid by beds of the most excellent quality of bituminous coal. This township, and its eastern neighbor, Green, are each nearly six miles square, while it will be remembered that the townships of the Reserve are uniformly five miles square, only. Hence, there is a breaking of joints in the north and south lines between the two townships originally connected with Stark county, and their neighbors upon the north, Franklin abutting on both Norton and Coventry, with Green upon the east, Lawrence, Stark county, upon the south, and Chippewa, Wayne county, upon the west.

FRANKLIN'S WATER-COURSES, LAKES, ETC.—This township is traversed its entire length, diagonally from north to south, by the Tuscarawas river, being joined near the southwest corner by the Chippewa river (formerly Indian Creek), the Ohio Canal also following the general course of the Tuscarawas through the township. There are also quite a number of smaller streams, in various portions of the township, which, with Mud Lake, in the southeast, covering about 50 acres, and Turkey Foot Lake, in the northeast corner, covering, with its numerous lagoons, sloughs and marshes, nearly 1,000 acres, gives to the township a most abundant water-supply.—Turkey Foot now forming a portion of the great chain of contiguous reservoirs that replenish the Ohio canal for navigation purposes in the dry season of the year.

FRANKLIN'S RESOURCES.—In an early day, the marshes adjacent to Turkey Foot Lake, and the several water courses of the township, bore immense quantities of cranberries, which, being gathered by the inhabitants, in the proper season, were, through local merchants, shipped overland to Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, etc., thus providing many a luxury to the pioneer settlers of the neighborhood. But that industry no longer exists in Summit county, not even to the extent of supplying the home market. There are, also, in different portions of the township, quite extensive beds of a pretty fair quality of peat, which, by reason of the plentifullness of coal, cannot be now profitably worked; the quite large deposits of bog iron-ore, formerly worked to a limited extent in the early blast-furnace days of Middlebury and Akron, being entirely overshadowed by the iron mines of Lake Superior and the great West.

A VILLAGE THAT WAS, BUT IS NOR.—When first ceded to the United States, one Richard Carter, a well-to-do and enterprising Quaker, of Wheeling, purchased a tract of land at the junction of the Tuscarawas and Chippewa rivers, in the southwestern corner of the township, employing John Harris, Esq., and David McClure, of Canton, to survey and lay out a village at that point, the work being completed in the latter part of 1806, and in honor of its proprietor, the prospective village was named "Cartersville." Though perhaps some slight advance towards settlement was made, its liability to inundation by every considerable rise of water in the streams named, led to an early abandonment of the project, and the carefully platted lands of Cartersville were relegated to the use of the pioneer hunter and husbandman.

A SMALL MORE UNFORTUNATE VENTURE.—About 1816, one David Harvey laid out a town on the banks of the Chippewa, a short distance northwesterly from the site of the abandoned village of Cartersville, above referred to. Harvey named his village "Savannah," and for a few years it had quite a boom, attaining to a population of some 60 or 70 souls, with mechanics, merchants, doctors, etc., Clinton being laid out about the same time by William Harvey, a son of David. In locating the Ohio canal, however, Savannah was "left out in the cold," while that great commercial water-way passed directly through Clinton. This gave such an impetus to the latter village, with a corresponding depression to the former, that by the time the canal was completed, in 1827, Savannah had largely merged itself in its more favored rival, and there is now neither stick nor stone to mark the spot where Savannah once stood.

FRANKLIN'S BUSINESS EMPORIUM.—The opening of navigation upon the canal, in 1827, as before intimated, very greatly stimulated the growth and business importance of Clinton. A number of stores were opened and stocked with goods suited to the times, hotels were established, mechanics' shops erected, schools and churches organized, with preachers, doctors, lawyers, speculators and all the paraphernalia of a prosperous and enterprising village. In fact, Clinton almost immediately became the market town for a large area of country, including not only contiguous towns east and west, in Stark and Wayne counties, but extended into Medina and Richland counties. Three or four large warehouses, capable of storing nearly 100,000 bushels each of grain, were erected, and scores of teams laden with wheat, corn, wool and other farm products, were daily seen upon her streets, while large numbers of canal boats were almost constantly loading at her docks. Large quantities of coal from the Chipewa, and other mines of the vicinage, were yearly shipped from this point, the operatives in which added very materially to the business importance, though not always to the peace and order of the village.

THREE VILLAGES IN ONE.—The original village of Clinton was laid out upon the west side of the river, by William Harvey, about 1816, as already stated, additions to which were soon afterwards made by Samuel Rossiter, William Christmas and James W. Lathrop. The opening of the canal in 1827, however, necessitated the building of warehouses upon that thoroughfare, and the concentration of business upon the east side of the river. Hence, about 1835, Gorham Chapin laid out a village on the southwest corner of section 29, the plat of which, under the name of "Oradeen," was duly recorded in Stark County, while, in 1837, William and Francis Pumroy laid out the village of "Pumroy" on the northwest corner of section 35, immediately south of, and adjoining Oradeen, both of which adjoined Clinton on the east.

Many lots in both of the new villages were sold and deeded, under the names designated, and though the three villages have long been known to the public by the general name of Clinton, the names of Oradeen and Pumroy are still carried upon the records and tax duplicates of Summit county.

PAST AND PRESENT STATUS.—In the early days, in addition to its importance, as a grain and produce center, Clinton was, for many years, a veritable mercantile port of delivery, merchants for many miles, both east and west, consigning their eastern purchases of goods to the commission houses at this point. But from about 1845, owing to the growing importance of other business centers—Akron, Massillon, Canal Fulton, etc.—Clinton remained about stationary for several years, and finally, with the advent of railroad communication with near-by localities, in the early fifties, rapidly lost its prestige as a grain and produce shipping point, and though for a number of years holding its coal-shipping and mining trade, it has since been gradually declining in business importance, though still fully holding its own in point of population, and still enjoying the local every-day trade from quite a section of rich farming territory on either side, besides such business as the old canal and contiguous railroads naturally bring to it.

THE VILLAGE OF MANCHESTER.—About the year of 1815—a year or more before Clinton was platted—Mahlon and Adam C. Stewart laid out a village about three miles northeasterly from the village of Clinton, which they named Manchester, though when sufficiently advanced to be accorded postal facilities, there being another Manchester somewhere in the State, the postoffice was named Nimisilla, probably from the river or creek of that name, a short distance south of the village. Mr. Adam Clarke Stewart was the father of Mrs. George W. Manly, of Canton, and Mrs. Henry E. Canfield and Mr. Orlando Stewart, of Akron, Mr. Stewart's first wife being the first person buried in the Manchester grave yard, which was located on the farm of the two brothers.

ADAM CLARKE STEWART.—Born in Frederick county, Maryland, November 27, 1794, in early life removing to Ohio, where, in connection with his brother, Mahlon Stewart, he founded the village of Manchester, in Franklin township, as elsewhere stated, in 1815. Having buried his wife in Manchester, as stated, in 1819 or 1820, removed to Richmond, Jefferson county, Ohio, where, in 1824, he was married to Miss Sarah Beabout, who bore him eight children, five of whom are still living—Hudson Stewart, now residing in Richmond; Orlando Stewart, of Akron; Mrs. George W. Manly, formerly of Akron, now of Canton; Mrs. J. R. Hague, of Columbus; and Mrs. Henry E. Canfield, of Akron. Mr. Stewart was a cabinet maker by trade, which business, together with that of undertaking, he carried on in Richmond for about forty years, also officiating as justice of the peace during the last twenty-five or thirty years of his life, his death occurring December 25, 1870, at the age of 76 years and 28 days.

ADAM CLARKE STEWART.

Manchester, being an inland town, with no transportation facilities other than the old-time six-horse Pennsylvania wagon, has never been blessed or cursed with "booms," but has kept on the even tenor of its way, except as affected by the general business vicissitudes of the world, during the three-quarters of a century of its existence. With its two or three stores, its single hotel, its full complement of mechanics, its skillful physicians, its faithful preachers and teachers, Manchester has proved an indispensable adjunct to the prosperity of the staid and thrifty farming community by which it is surrounded.

Though Manchester and Clinton are each some distance from the geographical center of the township, the elections, both general and local, have, until very recently, alternated between the two villages. Now, however, the township is divided into two separate election precincts, with voting places at Manchester and Clinton respectively, being much more convenient, generally, than the former arrangement, though still extremely unhandy for the voters in the northernmost sections of the township.

The first person to have really settled within the limits of the township, is supposed to have been Christopher Johnson, who located upon lot 14, in the eastern part of the township, in the Spring of 1814. It is not known where Johnson came from, but from the fact that he was designated by other early settlers as "Yankee Johnson," it is probable that he was of New England origin. The same Spring, and but a few days later, came Thomas Johnson, from Westmoreland county, Pa., who settled on lot 27, near Manchester, and about the same time William Halliwell, from Steubenville, who settled on lot 28, near Clinton. Johnson, a few years later, removed to Norton, where he built a tavern, store and several mills, and founded the village of Johnson's Corners. Mr. Halliwell, in 1833, removed to the southwestern portion of Richfield, where he lived for many years, a highly respectable and prosperous farmer. Jacob Burgner, from east of the Alleghanies, settled in Jackson township in 1812, and in April, 1814, removed to Franklin township; and is believed, by his descendants, to have been the first actual settler in the township. Other settlers soon afterwards began to flock in, among them Mr. Jacob Hollinger, Jacob Sours, Jacob Balmer, George Rex, Michael Bradenburg, John Snyder, John Hicks and others not now remembered, followed rapidly by the Vanderhoofs, Himmelrights, Marshes, Davises, Swaisgoods, Ludwicks, Clays, Spidels, Waltenbergers, McNiterrys, Wholfs, Rightleys, Scotts, Wises, Browns, Chapins, Hooks, Groves, Rossiters, Greenloes, Stumps, Wagones, Teebles, Bilers, Hoyds, Wirts, Hamm's, Bears, Rowes, Trroups, Sorricks, Wiltrouts, Stevens, Harveys, Flickingers, and others whose names are not now recalled.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS, ETC.—The first birth in the township was John Johnson, son of Christopher Johnson, in 1814; the first marriage was that of John Hicks to Catherine Flickinger, in 1815; the first death being that of Mrs. Jacob Balmer, in the summer of 1815, from the bite of a rattlesnake.

ORGANIZATION OF TOWNSHIP.—So rapid was the settlement of the township that in 1817, a school was established at Manchester, with Joseph Mishler, from Lancaster, Pa., as teacher. Mr. Mishler afterwards settling in Springfield. In April, of the same year (1817), by proclamation of the commissioners of Stark county, a township organization was effected, the first board of trustees elected being Mahlon Stewart, Jacob Hollinger and Michael Bradenburg, with David Harvey and Jacob Balmer as justices of the peace. The first store in the township was kept by Jacob Balmer, in Manchester; the first tavernkeeper being a Pennsylvanian by the name of John Schneider, while the first local dispenser of "pills and potions" in the township was Dr. Levi Brooks, afterwards, for many years, a resident of Oberlin, Lorain county.

FRANKLIN'S INDUSTRIES.—In the early days there were a number of saw-mills and grist-mills in various portions of the township, which cannot be well mentioned here, though all most usefully served their "day and generation," in bringing old Franklin forward to her present highly prosperous status among her sister townships of Summit county; the most important among them, probably, being the grist-mill of George Rex, at the outlet of Turkey Foot Lake, erected about the year 1817, the power of which was destroyed by the construction of the reservoirs in 1840. Nearly thirty-five years ago, Harvey Maranville, Esq., with the promise of pecuniary assistance from others, erected a four-story building in the Oradene portion of Clinton, for milling purposes, but failing to receive the promised aid, the property was transferred to the late Alexander M. Russell, by whom it was used as a store and warehouse, until the death of that gentleman in 1875. A few years ago it was purchased by a company, composed principally of Akron.

capitalists, under the corporate name of the Franklin Milling Company, and fitted it up with first-class machinery for the manufacture of flour, and is still devoted to that use, Messrs. C. F. Broseke & Son succeeding to the business in December, 1887. Among the pioneer "industries" of the township were several distilleries, for the transmutation of corn and other cereals into whisky; but as the fact began to dawn upon the minds of the people that the product of those establishments was a prolific source of poverty and disorder, the business began to wane, and long years ago became totally extinct. Would it were so throughout the entire world! From quite an early day the mining of coal has been quite extensive in several portions of the township, but at the present time little, if any, more than supplies the local demand is being mined. It is thought, however, by those thoroughly posted upon the subject, that there are still quite extensive veins of coal underlying the broad wheat fields of the township, that are only awaiting better facilities for transportation, to secure their profitable development.

GEORGE WAGONER.—born in Cumberland county, Pennsylvania, November 22, 1790; September 6, 1812, was married to Miss Sallie Rhodes, two weeks later starting with his bride for Ohio, settling in Lawrence township, Stark county. March 12, 1821, Mrs. Wagoner died, having borne him six children, four of whom survived her. June 17, 1821, Mr. Wagoner was again married to Miss Rebecca Souers, soon afterwards removing to a farm one and a half miles north of Manchester, in what is now Summit county. Ten children were the fruit of this last marriage, and on the celebration of their golden anniversary, June 17, 1871, there were living twelve children, fifty-three grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren. Mr. Wagoner was among the most substantial and intelligent citizens of Franklin township, during his long life taking an active interest in public affairs, both local and general, in politics being a stalwart Republican, and in every sense an upright Christian gentleman. Mr. Wagoner, after an illness of three days, of heart disease, died April 23, 1872, aged 82 years, 5 months and 1 day. Mrs. Wagoner died March 2, 1886, aged 83 years, 3 months and 15 days. Among their surviving children are Messrs. John J. and Aaron Wagoner, well-known business men of Akron, Mr. Philip Wagoner, one of the most enterprising farmers of Franklin township, and Henry L. Wagoner, postmaster at Krumroy.

IN THE MILITARY LINE.—Franklin has a very creditable military history. Being originally mainly settled by immigrants from patriotic old Pennsylvania, it is not improbable that quite a number of ex-Revolutionary heroes were among her more aged early inhabitants, and though the War of 1812 had substantially closed before settlement fairly begun, it is known that several participants in that struggle settled here, though their names cannot now be ascertained. In the Mexican War of 1846-1848, Franklin was represented by Matthias Weaver and several others whose names cannot now be given. And in the War of Rebellion, Franklin was equally patriotic with the average of her sister townships of Summit county, as the following roster, compiled through courtesy of Mr. Joseph M. Kleckner, and from the assessors' returns for 1863, '64 and '65 will abundantly show:

FRANKLIN'S CRIMINAL RECORD.

For a township so largely peopled by staid, sober, industrious and intelligent inhabitants, Franklin has been cursed with a large amount of turbulence and disorder, during the past 40 or 50 years. It is but just to the good people of the township, however, to say that a very large proportion of the disorder indicated has come from the comparatively transient population brought to the vicinity by the canal and mines, and it is safe to say that all of it resulted from the traffic in, and the excessive use of, intoxicating liquors. Passing by the almost innumerable brutal assaults and bloody affrays, that, in days of yore, so often disgraced Clinton, and several of the mining settlements of the township, we will here give the particulars of the two following cases, only, both of which resulted fatally:

THE SUTTER-SHEETES TRAGEDY.—On the night of June 26, 1856, occurred, within the bounds of Franklin township, one of those oft recurring fatal tragedies incident to indulgence in intoxicating drinks. The parties involved were Germans, named, respectively, Plauseus Sauter and Oswald Sheetes, living near, and operatives in the Chippewa coal mines, a short distance west of Clinton. On the day in question there had been a gathering in the village, for the purpose of organizing a military company, preparatory to celebrating the approaching Fourth of July. Liquors were freely indulged in during the afternoon and evening, and a portion of the party became considerably intoxicated and quarrelsome. Between 10 and 11 o'clock at night, Sheetes, with a companion named Hertz, started for home. Near Chippewa bridge, about a mile from Clinton, Sheetes and Hertz sat down by the side of the road to rest. Sauter soon afterwards coming up, carrying a gun, Sheetes, between whom and Sauter there had previously been some ill-feeling, commenced taunting the latter, calling him a coward, and asking him why he was walking around at that time of night carrying a gun.

Sauter ordering Sheetes to keep off, and intimating that it would be unsafe to approach him, passed on, Sheetes continuing his taunts of cowardice, telling him that he durst not shoot; that he had no heart; that his threats were all in his belly, etc. In the midst of this drunken bravado, Sauter aimlessly fired off his gun, the charge of shot entering the abdomen of Sheetes, from the effects of which he died the day following; the wounded man walking some distance to the nearest farm house, after receiving the fatal wound.

THE HOMICIDE DEFENDANT.—Sauter reloaded his gun, shut himself up in his house, and resisted all attempts to arrest him, until morning, when, the effects of the liquor having passed off, he became entirely submissive; expressed great sorrow for what had taken place; declaring that though he distinctly remembered discharging his gun, he had no recollection of the occurrences of the evening. He was duly examined before Justice David Stump, who committed him to jail, without bail, to answer to the Court of Common Pleas, then in session, on the charge of murder. The May term of the Common Pleas being then in session, and the regular grand jury having been discharged, the court, on the application of Prosecuting Attorney Sidney Edgeron, ordered Sheriff Dudley Seward to summon a special grand jury, who returned a bill of indictment, against Sauter, charging him with murder in the first degree. To this indictment Sauter entered a plea of not guilty. On further investigation, Prosecutor Edgeron, becoming satisfied that the killing of Sheetes was neither premeditated nor intended, accepted the plea tendered by the defendant, upon the advice of his attorneys, Messrs. Goodhue and McClure, of guilty of manslaughter.

SENTENCE, PARDON, ETC.—On this plea Judge Samuel Humphreyville sentenced the defendant to ten years' imprisonment in the State Penitentiary, whither he was accordingly taken by Sheriff Seward, July 16, 1856, his age then being 31 years. Saunter was pardoned by Governor Chase, October 14, 1859, after a service of three years, two months and twenty-one days, and, so far as the writer is advised, thereafter conducted himself as a peaceable and law-abiding citizen.

THE OSTER-KERNAN HOMICIDE.—Henry Oster was the keeper of a grocery store and saloon, in the village of Clinton, for several years, in the late fifties and early sixties, having among his customers a somewhat bibulous denizen of the place by the name of Martin Kernan. Mr. Oster having deceased early in 1864, his son, Charles Oster, had the settling up of his affairs, and had several times attempted to collect a small account against Kernan for groceries and whisky, chiefly the latter, but without success. On the 29th day of April, 1864, young Oster, seeing Kernan passing the field where he was working, stepped to the fence and again dunred him for the amount of his indebtedness, and not getting a very satisfactory response, told Kernan that he would give him until the 25th day of May to settle the matter, and if the bill was not paid by that time he would give him a thrashing. To this Kernan replied, in substance, that if he thought he could thrash him, he could try it then, whereupon Oster jumped over the fence and made an attack upon Kernan, knocking him down twice, and severely kicking him several times, from the effects of which he died in about half an hour.

A post-mortem examination disclosed the fact that three of Kernan's ribs were broken, and his spleen badly lacerated, which was undoubtedly the cause of death; though the liver was found to be very greatly enlarged. Sheriff Jacob Chisnell happening to be at Clinton at the time, arrested Oster and brought him to Akron and lodged him in jail. On Friday, May 1, Oster was examined before Lewis M. Janes, Esq., of Akron, and held to bail in the sum of $1,000 to answer to the Court of Common Pleas, on the charge of manslaughter.

The May term of court being then in session, with Judge Stephenson Burke upon the bench, and Edwin P. Green, Esq., acting as prosecuting attorney during the absence of the regular prosecutor, N. D. Tibbals, in the 100 day service in defense of Washington, the grand jury returned a bill of indictment charging the defendant with murder in the second degree. Nathaniel W. Goodhue, Esq., and Samuel W. McClure appeared for the defendant, who entered a plea of not guilty, as charged in the indictment, but on the advice of his counsel, tendered a plea of guilty of manslaughter, which plea was duly accepted by Prosecutor Green. Thereupon Judge Burke, after hearing evidence from several of the large array of witnesses that had been summoned to testify to the previous good character of the defendant, sentenced him to two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary of the State, and to pay the costs that had accrued in the case, amounting to $140.69.

Young Oster was but 17 years of age, as appears by the prison records, at the time of his incarceration, by Sheriff Chisnell, on the 15th day of June, 1864. He proved obedient and faithful in his

HONORABLE CIVIL RECORD.

In the civil annals of Summit county, Franklin holds a highly honorable position, as the following roster will demonstrate:

DR. HUGH R. CALDWELL, a successful physician, and enterprising business man of Franklin township, residing about one mile north of Clinton, was appointed, by the Legislature, one of the first associate judges of the Court of Common Pleas, on the organization of Summit county, in 1840, serving for the full term of seven years, with great ability and good judgment, though unfortunately, at times, considerably addicted to the use of intoxicating liquors.

HON. JOHN HOY, a resident of Manchester, was elected one of the first commissioners of the new county, in April, 1840, re-elected for the fractional term of two years in October of the same year, and again elected in October, 1842, for the full term of three years, giving to the position five years and seven months continuous and faithful service, and on the expiration of Judge Caldwell's term, in 1847, was appointed to the exalted position of associate judge, which he filled with credit to himself and his constituents until the taking effect of the new Constitution of the State in 1852. [A fine portrait, with brief biographical sketch, of Judge Hoy, will be found on page 98 of this volume.]

Houston Sisler, Esq., of Manchester, was elected to the highly responsible position of county treasurer, in October, 1854, and re-elected in 1856, filling the office to the general satisfaction for the constitutional period of four years.

HARVEY MARANVILLE, Esq., a resident of Clinton from 1833 until his removal to Akron, in 1861, served for five consecutive terms as justice of the peace of Franklin township, and in 1862 was appointed, by the treasury department, government inspector of liquors and oils for the 18th Congressional District, and afterwards commissioned as general gauger of the district; serving in that capacity until the winding up of that branch of the revenue service, here, in all about 15 years; by his skill and diligence saving to the treasury many thousands of dollars, that a less scrupulous officer would have permitted to stick to the fingers of the gentlemanly operators whose products he had to pass upon.

CHARLES BINEHART, Esq., of Clinton, was elected clerk of courts for Summit county, on the union ticket, 1863, and re-elected, on the Republican ticket, in 1866, filling the office six years, very acceptably indeed.

DR. WILLIAM SISLER, of Manchester, was elected as representative to the State Legislature in 1867, serving through the sessions of 1867, '68 and 1868, '69; Dr. Sisler also filling the important office of county commissioner for two consecutive terms, from 1875 to 1881, and also was one of the trustees of the Children's Home for two years.

HON. JACOB A. KOHLER, a native of Franklin township, but a resident of Akron since 1853, was elected prosecuting attorney in 1868 and re-elected in 1870, ably discharging the duties of that office for two consecutive terms; served as representative to the State Legislature in the sessions of 1883, '84 and '84, '85, two years, and as attorney general of the State of Ohio from January, 1886, to January, 1888.

LIEUTENANT LEVI J. McMURRAY, residing near Clinton, was elected sheriff in October, 1872, and re-elected in 1874, holding the office the constitutional term of four years, though from failing health unable to give his personal attention to official business the last year or more of his incumbency.

DR. WILLIAM SISLER—born in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, September 12, 1819; came to Manchester in 1840, teaching and farming three years; in 1843 began the study of medicine, commencing to practice in Manchester in 1846 and continuing, in partnership with his brother, until 1873. During the War, at the call of Governor Tod, served in hospitals after the battles of South Mountain and Antietam. In Fall of 1867 was elected representative to the State Legislature, serving two years; on removing to Akron, in 1873, in connection with Mr. John F. Hoy, opened a drug store, continuing until 1879; in October, 1875, was elected county commissioner and re-elected in 1878, serving six years; in 1887 was appointed trustee of Children's Home, serving two years. July 23, 1846, Dr. Sisler was married to Miss Lorohana R. Hoy, daughter of Hon. John Hoy, of Manchester, one of the first commissioners of Summit county, and associate judge from 1845 to 1852. Of the six children born to Dr. and Mrs. Sisler, three only are now living—

DR. WILLIAM SISLER.

Mary A., now Mrs. W. H. Diehl; Emma L., now Mrs. George J. Nieberg, and Henry B., now a successful farmer of Northampton township.

LIEUTENANT AARON WAGONER, born and reared upon his father's farm, in Franklin township, took up his residence in Akron, at the close of the war, whence he was elected county auditor, in October, 1880, and re-elected in 1883, intelligently, faithfully and courteously discharging the intricate duties of that office until his resignation thereof on the 1st day of April, 1887, to accept the cashiership of the City National Bank, of Akron, and is now (1891) cashier and one of the proprietors of the Akron Savings Bank, established in 1888.

DAVID C. MILLER, residing near Manchester, was elected county commissioner in October, 1881, and re-elected in 1884, assiduously performing the laborious, and often perplexing, duties of the office until his death, which occurred on the 8th day of November, 1886.

Unlike most of the out-lying townships of Summit county, notwithstanding the decadence in business of its villages, through the advent of railroads, and the concentration of business in the larger towns and cities, Franklin has, from the beginning, gradually gained in population—the census of 1840 placing the number of inhabitants at 1,436, and that of 1890 at 1,957—showing a gain of 521 in the intervening fifty years.

PRESIDENT OFFICIAL ROSTER.—Trustees, Jeremiah Dice, Hiram Stump, Philip Serfass; clerk, Harry Miller; treasurer, Levi M. Kauffman; justices of the peace, Cyrus Warley, Andrew Donnenwirth; constables, A. Roudebush, Ephraim Stump; postmasters, John Sisler, Nimesilla; Frank Maranville, Clinton.

over one-half besides devoting considerable time to the manufacture of salt. The United Salt Company, with O. C. Barber and A. T. Paige of Akron, and others from Cleveland. Drilling commenced which has now reached a depth of 2,500 feet, passing through three different sand rocks each bearing salt water. Work has been greatly delayed in test for various reasons. It has been found necessary to pull the casing weighing 43,000 pounds three different times, besides the tools have been broken and buried from the cable thirteen times. Some idea may be gained of the task by the fact that in one instance when a ten-inch pipe 300 feet a rock was struck requiring 20 tons to a blow and 1,200 blows to penetrate the same one inch. We append the formations of the Barberon test as furnished by Mr. Campen: At a depth of 350 feet and 10 inches a large bed of quicksand was found with streaks near the bottom, then slate rock to the distance of 2,085 feet. Then the drillers bored a hard limestone 274 feet in thickness. This led to salt water sand 30 feet in depth which followed by 28 feet of hard rock making 2,465 feet in depth. At this point 80 feet or two distinct veins of sand having salt brine bearing 27½ per cent. of salt in great quantities was found. These find also contained bromide and other foreign matter. At this point those interested are sifed that less than one hundred feet will produce in large paying quantities salt of a superior quality.

In the manufacture of salt with which the depths of Summit county abound, every facility funds for the production, manufacture, sale, etc. Railroad facilities are first-class, plenty of land and fuel. New York and Kansas have to ship fuel three and four hundred miles while in this locality these important elements are at hand for a nominal cost. The quality of the salt is pronounced by experts to be superior to any like production in the United States. Oil and gas are abundant in this section and an effort will develop what will prove valuable industries in this country.

Wadsworth plant was put into operation after an outlay of $12,000, of which Mr. Van Camphen had expended during two years of his time. Later a company was formed at Bar-

THE SOUTHERN JOURNAL

J. Pipher

The "Colonists" at Jamestown, Va., established salt works at Capel Charles before 1620 and in 1633 began to send salt to the Puritan settlers in Massachusetts. In 1689 salt was made in South Carolina. It has been produced from sea water from the earliest settlement of the country, by boiling or natural evaporation, in great quantities all along the Atlantic coast, especially during the Revolution and the war of 1812 when foreign importations were difficult. No country in the world is richer in salt springs and deposits than the United States. The first salt manufactured in Ohio was in 1785. The most important sources of supply, however, in the order of their production, are New York, West Virginia and Ohio, New York produces one-half more of the domestic supply. The principal springs of that state are in Chondraga county and the leading works at Syracuse.

trip, Mr. Van Campen homed from us a portion of the county, now Batherton, and as far east as Kent. Upon his return to his home in New York State he wrote the postmaster at Wadsworth, Medina county, asking him how many test wells for mineral had been drilled within a circle of twenty miles of Wadsworth. He received a reply stating 11, distributed as follows: Akron¹, Sterling¹, Circleville¹, Wadsworth², Kent¹, Middlebury¹, Peninsula¹, and Medina². Notwithstanding this discouraging reply he was convinced that indications could not fail and he went to Wadsworth where he commenced a test for oil or gas. At the depth of 2,383 feet a large volume of salt water was reached. At great expense however casting was substituted for that in use and the drilling prosecuted with vigor.

IN MEMORIAM

This, the second Volume of Summit County Cemetery Transcriptions is dedicated to the memory of

LOIS McNEIL OGIER
1901 - 1979

Mrs. Ogier was Chairperson of the Summit County Cemetery Inscription Committee, supervising the publication of Volume One and the beginning of Volume Two. She served as President of the State of Ohio Genealogical Society.

Having published a book of her family lines, she assisted in publishing church records. She was known as an artist, teacher, and genealogist. The list of her activities and accomplishments are endless. She always had time to talk with people.

We all were saddened by her sudden death in a two-vehicle accident in Fort Myers, Florida, Wednesday, December 19, 1979. In her own words, her epitaph should read "She loved life. She just didn't have time to live enough of it."

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Special thanks to:

Beth Pickenpaugh Kolowski for manuscript typing.
Catherine Ebert Macey for cover design.
James Hossler for historical background on the cemeteries.
Summit County Engineer's office for cooperation in providing two maps.
William and Irene Taylor - Barberton Printcraft for help above the call of duty.

Summit County was formed March 3, 1840. The four Townships in the western part of the County were cut off from Medina (Richfield, Bath, Copley, and Norton): the two southernmost townships, Franklin and Green, were cut off from Stark County. The remainder of the County was formed from Portage County.

The following may be helpful when searching Summit County records.

COUNTY	BIRTH & DEATH		MARRIAGE	WILL	DEED
Medina	1861	1908	1812	1867	1795 - 1817
Portage	1810	1907	1807	1810	1820
Stark	1865		1808	1808	1810

Summit County has deeds from 1796 to 1840.

More than twenty years ago, Esther Weygandt Powell became aware that many of the old burying grounds of early settlers in Ohio were disappearing at an alarming rate. Developers of subdivisions, roads and mines were either unaware of the State Law covering the abandonment of cemeteries or were operating oblivious to the fact. This situation coupled with the action of the elements upon the old soft stones were destroying the only CLUE that one might have to the vital statistics of an ancestor. We are indebted to her for the preservation of the records of early years. Miss Gladys Chamberlain and Mrs. Murray Smith, among others, transcribed several of Summit County Cemeteries as part of a project of Cuyahoga Portage Chapter D A R. Copies of other older records were obtained from Western Reserve Historical Library. In many cases, these older records have been correlated with recent transcriptions. We are grateful for their excellent work.

Included with the actual tombstone inscription is relevant data from these older recordings and data supplied from personal knowledge of the person copying the inscription. The name of the persons who copied the data appears at the end of each cemetery record.

More than forty members of the Summit County Chapter have participated in this project. There are, however, many "unsung heroes."

Every effort has been made to present an accurate record. Due to erosion by wind and weather, unavoidable errors are apt to occur. The Chapter assumes no responsibility for such.

CLINTON CEMETERY
Clinton, Ohio

The Clinton Cemetery Association is the owner of this 5.75 acre cemetery located at 8010 S. Cleveland-Massillon Road in Clinton, Franklin Township. This grid design cemetery is on a small hill with trees and bushes and is well kept. There is a maintenance building and monuments face both east and west.

Historically, this cemetery was a township cemetery until 1916 when it was transferred to the cemetery association. Unfortunately, no records prior to 1916 can be located. Deed records show that Phidello Smith and his son, Orlando Smith, sold a total of 3.43 acres to the Clinton Cemetery Association between 1924 and 1943.

BLILER - Stark Co. Ohio c. 1846

Posted by: Pat Grant

Date: June 18, 1999 at 10:19:51

 of 10

IGT says Anthony was born in Germany

My ancestral grandmother was Rebecca Bliler who m. Anthony Houk 20 March 1846 in Stark County OH. I have been unable to find her birth place, altho one census has her listed as being born in Indiana. She lived in Canal Fulton, Massillon and Tiffin OH, and had 10 children among the three locations. Altho married by a justice of the peace, they were Roman Catholic and her gravesite is in St. Mary's Cemetery, Massillon OH. Any info on Rebecca's early life will be appreciated. I have pictures and info on later life to share.

Pat, It looks like it's our party. I guess you and I and Shirley are the only ones looking for Blilers. I did find one little tid bit the other day. My 2G grandmother, Mary ELizabeth Edgington died in 1901 and is buried in Catholic Cemetery in Canal Fulton, Stark County, OH. Do you know if all the Blilers were Catholic? If they were, maybe that's why Mary E.'s family disowned her. The fact that she was buried in the Catholic Cemetary makes me think that she had remained cast out. If it's true, isn't that sad? JOHN BLILER, OH AND IN

I am looking for parents and siblings of my 2G grandfather, John Bliler b. 1830 in Stark County, Ohio, d. March 5, 1891 in Peru, Miami County, Indiana. He married Mary Elizabeth Edgington 1852 in Stark County, Ohio. He may have married again to Mary Jane Reed 1875 in Indiana. He had 3 children with Mary Elizabeth Edgington: Harry, Maude, and Lillian (my G grandmother). I would be grateful for any information anyone may have. Thank you.

My G grandmother, Lillian Bliler was born in 1861 (not sure where). Her father, John Bliler, b. 1830, Stark County, OH, is listed in the 1860 census of Cass County, Indiana. I believe Lillian was still living in Cass County, IN when she married my G grandfather, Joseph H. Larimer in 1882. Would love to hear from anyone who has Blilers from Stark County, OH or Cass, Miami and possibly Marion Counties, IN.

Lillian may have been born in the early 1860s. In 1882, she married Joseph Henry Larimer in Miami County, IN. I think have found the death record for her brother Harry. I found a Harry Slick Bliler, who died Apr. 20th, 1910 at age 44 in South Bend, St. Joseph County, IN.
This is a very lonley little Bliler List. I hope to hear from someone

Bill -

Read your message today and would like to begin corresponding with you. I too am related to the Bliler family. My grandmother, Lula Etta Bliler Mathias (b. 1877 Clinton, OH) was the daughter of Hiram Nathan Bliler. I believe that she and Lloyd Bliler were cousins. Furthermore, believe that for a time, Hiram Nathan worked the family farm in Clinton which Lloyd eventually inherited.

Would very much like to share information with you as there appears to be little in Genforum re: Bliler's.

Susan, Hi My name is Bill Smith and I live in Canal Fulton, Stark Co., Ohio. I moved here from Akron, Summit Co., Ohio about 6 yrs. ago. My great-grand father was Lloyd Bliler from Clinton, Summit Co., Ohio. I've been doing a Family tree and found quite a bit on the Bliler's. Going back to Jacob Bliler, coming over from Switzerland in 1737, on an Amish ship called the "Charming Nancy".

I know that not all the Blilers were Catholic. My side of the family is not. But it seems that the Canal Fulton, Stark Co. side was, because I found the last living Bliler in the area here. His name is J. Wilbur Bliler and he will be 92 yrs. old in November. His sister Elizabeth died 2 yrs. ago and is buried in a Catholic Cemetery here in Canal Fulton. Both her and Wilbur never married, but there Father Samuel R. married Martha E. Hammer, they were Catholic, so Elizabeth was Buried with them. I talked with Wilbur and he said he knew Lloyd and that we are related but, he does not know exactly how. So I have tried to make the connection. I think I got it, but I need more info yet.

Dear Betty Fitch:

Thank you for the kind letter I recently received. I am glad that the information I sent to you was helpful in your research.

For the copies and postage, I kept only $1.00. A receipt for that amount is enclosed. One dollar was quite sufficient so I am returning the rest, but thank you so much for the thought.

Please let our Court know if we can be of any more help in your Summit County research.

Again, I was glad to be of help and appreciated hearing from you. Good luck !!

Sincerely,

Hello,

I am interested in getting some copies of some probate papers. I went on line to your website and tried to e-mail you but it was kicked right back to me so will try snail mail.

I would like copies of the following and am hoping that you can tell me where I can obtain such copies and about how much it will cost. I went to the vital records information but the Probate Court says death records above 1870 and some of the ones I want are older than that. Also it is not the death records I need, but will and probate information.

I took the following from a book in the Allen Co. Public Library in Fort Wayne, IN and as I remember it, it was a will book.

Daniel Bliler	probate papers	Book 2, page 019	year 1858
Jacob Bliler	probate papers	Book 1, page 288	year 1854
Joel Bliler	probate papers	Book 5, page 023	year 1878

Is there any way you can help me?? Or direct me to the proper place where these records are stored and kept?? And the approximate cost to receive copies of them??

Thank you so much. Will enclose a SASE for your answer. We here in Allen Co., IN are now in the process of getting a website up for our Huntertown Historical Society and hope to be on line by fall. It is a huge undertaking for us.
